

Ingenico Group announces the completion of Paymark acquisition

Ingenico Group (Euronext: FR0000125346 - ING), the global leader in seamless payments, today announced completion of the acquisition of Paymark, a leading New Zealand payment network. Regulatory approvals from the relevant regulatory and antitrust authorities are now all in place.

With the acquisition of Paymark, Ingenico Group will be well positioned in the Pacific Region to deploy the full suite of its offer to retailers and financial institutions including in-store and online payment acceptance services as well as value-added products such as analytics and loyalty.

Ingenico will continue to invest in Paymark in order to keep providing the best payment solutions for its customers including the banks, retailers and local partners with whom Ingenico Group, Bambora and Paymark, have built strong relationships in the region.
