Terminal as a Service (TaaS) by Ingenico

In an increasingly complex and competitive payments market, retaining merchants and acquiring new business is extremely challenging. Delivering an exceptional, end-to-end service is the key to success. Ingenico's TaaS solution lets you match the right hardware, software and services to support your business strategy and address your merchant customer's needs.

Our TaaS offering brings together a comprehensive suite of services covering the entire lifetime of a payment terminal, from installation to end-of-life management, for a simple monthly fee. Whether you own or lease your payment equipment, you can count on TaaS to deliver value-added business services for your merchant customers and ensure 24/7 terminal availability. With TaaS, we take care of your terminal estate so you can focus on growing your business.
